SINCE 1966

1 THE FIRM IN GENERAL

ILCT was founded by a U.S. attorney, Mr. Charles Warren Kirkwood, as a Registered Ordinary Partnership, in Bangkok, on 4 July 1966 and went through various transformations. In 1998, our Asian offices of the firm comprising Bangkok, Vietnam and Taipei, start practicing in Asia under the name of Russin & Vecchi (R&V).

ILCT is the official name of the Bangkok Office. ILCT is the lead office of the multi-domestic law firm, Russin & Vecchi (R&V). ILCT is registered as a Grade “A” Thai Consultant with the Thai Consultant Database Centre, Ministry of Finance, entitling it to bid for government projects.

With over 55-year of history, ILCT was one of the pioneering international law offices engaging in the Thai business law practices. We have earned our reputation by consciously practicing in a group format and using personnel of diverse educational and technical backgrounds, most of whom are multilingual (Thai, English, Chinese, Japanese, French, Italian and Spanish), forming teams to deal with each matter by applying diversified expertise. With this method and through our inter-office matrix system, we have developed a unique internationalist approach and able to provide tailored services to a wide cross-section of corporate and individual clients.

ILCT is a member of Nextlaw network, by invitation from Dentons, a network with leading global law firms over 650 members in 200 countries with more than 30,000 lawyers connected.

2 I L C T PRACTICE AREAS

In Thailand, the firm is known as International Legal Counsellors Thailand, or “I L C T”. With 7 resident partners and, as of these writing 16 associate lawyers, plus 22 trained paralegals, most of whom are multilingual, together with other support staff, we are 70 in number. With our over 55-year history, ILCT was one of the pioneer law offices engaging in the business law practice in Thailand. We have earned our reputation by consciously practicing in a group format and using personnel of diverse educational backgrounds to form teams to deal with each matter by applying maximum diversified expertise. By this method and through our inter-office matrix system, we have developed an internationalist approach and, indeed, the overwhelming majority of our clients have an international connection, whether by their make-up or by the type of transactions in which they are engaged.
